

Description: This award is for recent PhD graduates who wish to participate in the Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences in Regina, SK, May 26 to June 1, 2018 but may face financial difficulties in doing so.

Up to 100 awards are funded through the President's Planning Committee for Congress 2018 and will provide assistance to recent graduates who have yet to obtain secure work (such as a tenure-track appointment, post-doc, or contract of more than a year) to attend Congress 2018 to present papers, posters, or other creative works related to their research. Awards are distributed on a first-come, first-served basis.

Value: Up to $500 each

Eligibility:

- The applicant will have graduated with a PhD in a social science or humanities discipline after June 1, 2016;
- The applicant does not hold a tenure-track appointment, term appointment of more than a year, post-doc position, or non-academic position of more than a year as of January 1, 2018;
- The applicant must be presenting a paper, poster, or creative work relevant to their program of research;
- The applicant's primary place of residence must be more than 100 km from Regina.

Applications: Applicants must submit the Congress 2018 Application for the Travel Award for Recent Graduates (coming January 15, 2018).

Award distribution: Successful applicants will be notified by the Congress 2018 office. In order to claim their award, successful applicants must submit the following:

- Proof that a paper or poster has been accepted for presentation at Congress 2018;
- Proof of registration for Congress 2018.

Coverage: Subsidies of up to $500 will be applied toward:

- Up to four nights of accommodation in University of Regina Housing while attending Congress 2018;
- A meal card of up to $150 for use at University of Regina food vendors during your stay;
- Up to $75 credit for use at the University Regina Bookstore.

Deadlines: January 15, 2017 — applications open
February 28, 2018 — applications close
March 30, 2018 — proof of registration for Congress 2018 and proof of acceptance submitted

Contact Us: TravelAward.2018@uregina.ca

